SIMPLE, STACKABLE BRACELET

Create a quick and easy bracelet with tons of texture using the 3mm Melon Rounds from Starman.

Place a pair of Melon beads between SuperDuo beads for a fast and fashionable bracelet.

ABOUT THE ARTIST: KATHY SIMONDS

I am an Idaho native with two daughters and three grandsons who make my life so enjoyable. I started beading after going to a craft show, buying a bracelet and thinking, I can do that! I love the challenge of putting those tiny beads into a design and working on color combinations. I have met many people who inspire me every day to continue designing and especially to enjoy my time while doing it.

COLORWAYS: Pink/Gold: SuperDuo Polychrome Copper Rose (364-25-94100); Melon Round 3mm Matte Metallic Flax (287-03-K0171); TOHO Round 11" Bronze (TR-11-221).

MATERIALS

32 SuperDuo (SD)
60 Melon Round, 3mm (M3)
10 TOHO 11" Round Beads (SB)
TOHO One-G Thread
Clasp of Choice

Bracelet as instructed measures approx. 6 1/2".
Each additional SD/M3 segment adds approx 3/16".

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Add a stop bead to 1yd of thread. Add SD, then jump through its second hole. Add M3, SD. Repeat adding M3 and SD until all 32 SD are added. After adding the last SD, jump to its second hole.
2. Add M3, pass through the open hole of the next SD. Continue adding M3 between SD for the length. After adding the last M3, remove the stop bead and tie a square knot against the tail. Pass through SD, jump to the second hole, then tie off.
3. Tie on 1ft of thread to the end of the bracelet. Exiting the SD at the end, add two SB, one end of the clasp, two SB, then pass through the second hole of SD. Jump to the first hole of SD and pass through all beads again for strength. Tie off. Repeat this step for the remaining end of the bracelet.
